BELLINGHAM'S CELEBRATED
Stimulating Onguent,
FOR THE
Whiskers and Hair.

THE subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

is prepared by Dr. C. P. BELLINGHAM, and eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

BALDNESS,

The subscribers are the only Agent for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR A BOX.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent" (warranted to have desired effect) will be sent to any who desires it, by mail (direct,) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1,18.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Remarkable Conversation with Mr. Calhoun.

HE PREDICTS SECESSION NEARLY FIFTY YEARS AGO.

A private letter from the venerable Commodore Stewart, is published in the eastern papers, in which he gives a very interesting account of a conversation which he held with the late John C. Calhoun, at Washington in December, 1812. Com. Stewart had cultivated very friendly relations with the South Carolina representative, and frequently discussed political matters with him. On one occasion the conversation turned upon points of unusual importance, and is thus described in the letter:

One evening, I struck on the divided views of our sectional interests, of the war—stated to him that the opposite feeling on this subject had puzzled me exceedingly, and asked him how it was that the planting states were so strongly and so decidedly in favor of the war, while the commercial states were so much opposed to it. With this latter section of our country it seemed to me that the punishment of England, through the medium of war, ought to meet their highest approbation, and call for their greatest efforts, as they were the greatest sufferers through her instrumentality and power over our commercial affairs, since 1792 which were so arrogantly urged by plunder and impressment on the highway of nations, while the southern portion of the Union had felt but little in comparison. I observed, with great simplicity, "You in the south and south west are decidedly the aristocratic portion of this Union; you are so in holding persons in perpetuity in slavery; you are so in every domestic quality; so in every habit of your lives, living and actions; so in habits, customs, intercourse and manners; you neither work with your hands, head, nor any machinery, but live and have your living, not in accordance with the will of your Creator, but by the sweat of slavery, and yet you assume all the attributes, professions and advantages of democracy."

Mr. Calhoun replied: "I see you speak through the head of a young statesman, and from the heart of a patriot, but you lose sight of the politician and the sectional policy of the people. I admit your conclusions in respect to us southrons. That we are essentially aristocratic, I cannot deny, but we can and do yield much to democracy. This is our sectional policy; we are from necessity thrown upon and solemnly wedded to that party, however it may occasionally clash with our feelings for the conservation of our interests. It is through our affiliation with that party in the middle and western states, that we hold power; but when we cease to control this nation through a disjointed democracy, or any material obstacle in that party which shall tend to throw us out of that rule and control, we shall then resort to a dissolution of the Union.

"The compromises in the constitution, under the circumstances, were sufficient for our fathers; but under the altered condition of our country from that period, leave to the south no resource but dissolution, for no amendments to the constitution could be reached through a convention of the people under their three-fourths rule."

I laughed incredulously, and said, "Well, Mr. Calhoun, ere such can take place, you and I will have been so long non est, that we can now laugh at its possibility, and leave it with complacency to our children's children, who will then have the watch on deck."

Alas! how entirely were the views of that "young headed statesman" circumscribed by the patriotic feelings of his heart. What he then thought an impossibility for human hands to effect, for ages on ages to come, he now sees verified to the letter, as predicted by that far-seeing statesman, John C. Calhoun.

THE NEW DAHOMEY—AN HONEST ENGLISH VIEW OF THE SOUTHERN TRAITORS:—The London News, a paper far more honest than the Times, and but little, if at all, inferior in editorial ability, in its issue of the 19th thus discusses American affairs:

The admirers of New Dahomey have now another opportunity of applauding the prompt initiative of that confederation.—From the meeting of the convention of South Carlina to the firing on Fort Sumter, the southern leaders have distinguished themselves in only one way. Unable to do anything to inspire confidence at home or abroad, and maintaining their position by the grossest tyranny, they have rapidly become eminent in the arts of ruin. Having destroyed the greatness, the unity and the prosperity of their country, it only remained for them to destroy its peace, and this was an easy matter. The capture of Fort Sumter will never be mentioned among the great military exploits of history. It is solely as probably the prelude of a long series of fratricidal conflicts that it so powerfully excites the sympathy of two worlds, and in that view it is one of the most important events of our time.

[The News then recapitulates the events attending the evacuation of Fort Sumter, and warmly commends Major Anderson's valor. It also predicts the secession of Virginia, and congratulates the Union on its prospective riddance of that bankrupt, cowardly and treacherous State. The article concludes as follows:]

Southern politicians, annoyed at finding that the governments of Europe are not eager to shake the polluted hand which is extended to them from Montgomery, persuade themselves that if they were in possession of Washington they should acquire a certain prestige in the eyes of the world. Vain as is this imagination, it is just such an one as the southern leaders are likely to indulge, and an attack on the capital must not be dismissed from the catalogue of contingencies because the project is wild and absurd. The dire poverty of the Confederacy, and the hopelessness of obtaining credit, as shown in the failure of the new loan, while the loan offered by the government of the Union has been subscribed four millions in excess, powerfully as they must tell in a protracted war, will only make the Montgomery government more desperately adventurous. But the most important effect of these occurrences must be expected in the north, the east, and above all in the west. The temper of the proud and idle southerners inclines them to ostentatious military display, and perhaps also to a mistake which has been made elsewhere: that of supposing that an industrious population of forbearing disposition may safely be trifled with. In this respect the north is likely to undeceive them. The tenor of letters and newspapers leads us to expect that, now that the Montgomery government has shown its colors, all hesitation will be at an end. That a consolidation of opinion will take place; that men's minds will be united in common resolutions, and that we shall soon hear of the rapid developement of warlike forces. The people of the north are as high spirited as those of the bragging south, and they are now at liberty to consult only the permanent interests of the country. England has invariably and unanimously desired a pacific adjustment of the difficulties of the Americans, but if this cannot be, her own undivided sympathies are for those who represent the liberty, social and political, the morality, the enlightenment, energy and all that is hopeful and progressive among the American people.

THE TOMB OF WASHINGTON.—The New York Herald's dispatch, announcing that the remains of Washington had been removed from Mt. Vernon by Col. Washington, is entitled to no credence, and can be only viewed as a repetition of the idle and senseless appeals to the credulity of the public so common.

As to the assertion of the dispatch, that "Col. Washington reserved to himself not only the tomb of Washington, but also an acre of ground around it," the whole thing is untrue. We are personally assured by one of our citizens, who has seen and read the original contract of sale, that it included the tomb of Washington, and expressly provided that the remains should forever be continued in the tomb where they were laid.

The only reservation made by Col. Washington had relation to the remains of the Washington family, deposited in the inclosure surrounding the tomb.

It should be remembered that the premises have long since been vacated by Col. Washington, and have, for some time, been occupied by Miss Cunningham, the president of the Mt. Vernon Ladies' Association.—Chicago Journal.

Another Amendment to the Banking Law.

Senator Bennett has introduced a bill at the present session of the legislature, to amend the banking law of this state, providing that no stocks other than those of this state, and of the United States, be taken as security for bank bills. With the experience of the past few months we have no doubt that the people would approve of such an amendment. Its adoption would, perhaps, limit the amount of banking capital in this state, but this is precisely what should be done. It should be accompanied by a law which would effectually exclude all bank notes from other states which are not secured in a similar manner. Without this precaution, the restriction upon our own banks would be practically useless.—In a short time, the state would be flooded with worthless eastern trash, like the Bangor money, or the Hartford county, of which this community has a lively remembrance. We must recollect that it is not all good money which comes from the east, and that those who wish the circulation of it here, have forgotten the past experience of Wisconsin in this kind of currency. Maine, Connecticut and New Jersey have not provided for the security of the bill-holders of their banks, and the same is probably the case with several other states. We should be glad to see our state enter upon a policy which has for its object the total suppression of bank paper, and we think the proposition of Senator Bennett looks in that direction, or would be a step towards it, to which might be added another law for protection against fraudulent issues of bank paper from other states.

The War Debt.

We learn from the Wisconsin that there are gentlemen at Madison from Milwaukee, who are very anxious that the legislature should create a $4,000,000 war debt for this state, not so much for the purpose of aiding in the defense of the country, as to create a basis for banking.

Doubtless there are those who would ruin this state financially, if they could make money out of it themselves; and they very naturally take advantage of the present patriotic feeling of the people, to accomplish this design. We are not surprised, either that those "gentlemen" come from Milwaukee, as most of the bad financiering in this state has originated there.

We trust our legislators will be upon their guard against proposals of this kind. A four million debt is not required for the present emergency. Neither is a two million debt demanded. The most that is needed is $800,000 in addition to the $200,000 already appropriated, making a million in the whole. To pay this, a tax of $50,000 would have to be annually imposed, together with a sinking fund for its final redemption. This is quite an addition to our taxes, which the people will cheerfully pay; but a debt greater than is needed, or a waste of the money appropriated, will be frowned upon, and its authors condemned in the future.

The general government asks us for three regiments only; two of them are formed and ready for service, and the third nearly so. It will be proper for the state to arm and equip immediately three more regiments, and have them ready when called for. The expense of raising these six regiments will be re-paid by the general government, in a few months. The million of dollars would, therefore, still remain unexpended.

This fund might be used in purchasing arms for the state, to be supplied to a reserve volunteer corps, who remain at home, pursuing their usual avocations, and preparing themselves for further service in the war; or as a permanent military organization of the state. For these purposes, a million of dollars is probably all that is needed; and we hope the legislature will go no farther than that at present, even if it disappoints those "disinterested gentlemen from Milwaukee and elsewhere," who want $4,000,000 of banking capital.

A BEAUTY!—The military bill passed by the Missouri legislature at a midnight session just before its adjournment, is a genuine offspring of secession. It compels (or seeks to compel) every able bodied citizen, between the ages of eighteen and forty-eight, to do military duty, or pay a fine of $150. Anybody speaking disrespectfully of the governor or legislature is to be tried by court-martial, and every citizen is required to take an oath of allegiance to the state of Missouri and to obey the orders of the Governor only.

We think the U. S. government will have a word or two to say about this law, and that volunteers under Frank Blair will be quite as safe as those under Gov. Jackson.

OHIO PUBLIC WORKS.—The Ohio legislature has disposed of the canal question. There is to be a public letting of the canals on the 29th of May. No bid is to be accepted under $20,000 over and above the expenses.

War Items.

A Memphis paper states that on Sunday night, a week ago, the levee below that city was cut, and enormous damage done to the crops. The rumor is not confirmed by telegraph, but the Louisville Democrat believes it.

FOR THE SOUTH.—We learn from good authority, says the La Crosse Republican, that the second regiment will be sent to Cairo or St. Louis.

Before the Syracuse regiment departed for Elmira, and while in line, a committee of young ladies passed along the ranks and affixed a tri-colored rosette to the breast of each man.

Fifty-four Crimean veterans have enlisted in the Sixty-ninth regiment, under Colonel Corcoran.

A company of flying artillery of Massachusetts is being formed, who will each be armed with a light hunting axe.

The English troops have given the New Zealanders two more whippings in the field, the latter attacking in each battle.

Colored regiments raised in Canada have been formally offered to the government, but declined.

The war will create a large demand for horses and cattle. The government, we see, has just ordered up $500,000 worth.—The horse and cattle markets should be decidedly lively for some time.

In Alabama, the wheat crop, about ready to cut, has been struck with the rust, and there is great scarcity now, with a worse prospect ahead.

Passengdrs from Washington through Baltimore report that the route between the two cities, when traversed by night, presents a magnificent spectacle. Along the entire line of the railroad guards are posted to prevent the removing of the rails, and as the cars pass on, first a lighted tent, then a few tents together, then glimpses of an extensive encampment, will catch the eye, ranged, in every conceivable angle as regards the railway, and furnishing a panorama of beauty of the most fascinating character. The picture is one of continued and varied interest until the train reaches Baltimore.

There are now between 6,000 and 7,000 Western New York volunteer troops at Camp Taylor, in Elmira.

At Macon, Ga., all persons tried in court for assault and battery are sentenced to enlist in the army.

CONCLUDED NOT TO MARCH.—An official statement in the Charleston Courier shows that only 397 of the first regiment of South Carolina volunteers would go north to fight, while 640 remained at home.

The Boston Atlas has sent four editors and eight printers to the war. Massachusetts people are in earnest.

The New Orleans merchants are getting up a subscription for the New York News, an unblushing apologist for treason, and most malignant assailant of the government.

A committee of citizens of the federal capital have called a meeting, whose object shall be to request the mayor and police of Washington to resign. These officials are tinctured with secession.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The New York Tribune of Wednesday says—"Mrs. Lincoln, who is still sojourning at the Metropolitan Hotel, was engaged almost all day yesterday in making extensive purchases at Lord & Taylor's and various other places about the city. A great many distinguished citizens called upon her in the afternoon, but few of them were fortunate enough to see her. She found time, however, to call on Col. Anderson and his wife, at the Brevoort House, where she remained some time. Last evening she went to Laura Keene's theatre with some friends.

The steamship Great Eastern has engaged to carry 44,000 bushels of wheat from New York to Liverpool, on her return trip, at 18 cents per bushel.

The counties represented in convention at Wheeling, and which contemplate forming themselves into a new state, are thirty in all, with a free white population of 207,655, and the insignificant, comparatively, slave population of 8,896. The New York Times felicitously calls the proposed new state "Virgin Virginia."

The ladies this season have originated an entirely new style of bonnet. The material consists of—first, the usual frame work; second, a paper covering of any desired color; and third, such ribbons and other trimmings as the wearer's taste may indicate. Not only is the bonnet so made light and cheap, but it may be altered as often as the wearer chooses. The frame costs eighteen pence, the paper sixpence, and the trimmings any price to suit the purchaser.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On the night of the 7th inst., the store of Archibald McNicol, at Butt's Landing, fifteen miles below La Crosse, took fire and narrowly escaped destruction. Several articles in a burning state were thrown from the window to the gravel walk below. After the fire was subdued, search was made for Mr. McNicol, who had not been seen during the excitement, and he was found on the gravel sidewalk with his face partially imbedded in the sand, having been badly burned by the goods which had been thrown on him. It was supposed he jumped from the window and was instantly killed.

DEPOSED OF SATISFACTORILY.—The New York Tribune makes the following announcement:

Mr. Mortimer Thomson, better known as "Doesticks," was yesterday married by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, to Miss Grace Eldredge, eldest daughter of "Fanny Fern." The ceremony took place at the residence of Jame Parton, the celebrated biographer. The patriotic mother of the bride had an elegant American flag arranged as a canopy, beneath which the happy couple were united.

WHISKY STOPPED.—We stated in our Thursday's extra that Cincinnati had stopped the southern shipment of flour some time since. Messrs. Sauner & Culley yesterday received a letter from a business house in Cincinnati, stating that the shipment of whisky to Paducah was forbidden, on account of the sentiments of the people here.—Paducah Herald.

HIGH TONED SENTIMENTS OF SOUTH CAROLINA "LADIES."—The New York Independent says:

During the bombarding of Fort Sumter, a lady of this city sat in a hotel at Charleston, in the same room with the wives of two officers of the assailing army. In her hearing one of these women said, "I should like to get at Major Anderson, to butcher him myself." The other answered, "We'll soon get old Abe's heart, and hand it round." Four months ago the husbands of both these women were in the senate of the United States, among the legislators of a christian nation—and THEY were considered among the first society in Washington.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, May 19.

A communication by W. P. Smith says the reported destruction of bridges on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad is untrue, as also the report in a New York morning paper that they had asked Gen. Scott to take military possession of the road.

Special to the Commercial Advertiser—Within a few days all regiments will be ordered to Fort Monroe.

Post's special—The Capitol building will be cleared of troops by the 1st of June.

The Michigan Rifle regiment has arrived here in fine condition, being the first body of western troops that has reached the capitol.

There is no positive indication of the advance of the rebels, nor have batteries been erected on Arlington Heights.

Secretary Cameron's family arrived here to-day.

LOUISVILLE, May 17.

The official returns from 89 counties show the Union vote for border state delegates to be 98,561. There are eighteen counties to hear from. The aggregate Presidential vote in November was 146,216.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 17.

The house yesterday concurred in the senate bill legalizing the suspension of specie payments by Kentucky banks.

The house passed a resolution that Kentucky should maintain strict neutrality during the present contest, and approving of the Governor's refusal under existing circumstances to furnish troops to the federal government.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, May 17.

Companies C, E and I, fourth artillery, from Fort Randall, Capt. Getty commanding arrived here to-day. Leave for Chicago to-night.

NEW YORK, May 17.

Steamer Karnack has arrived from Havana 11th, via Nassau 13th. U. S. steamer Crusader at Havana from Key West, reports yacht Wanderer taken by the U. S. sloop of war St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, May 17.

The statement that Winans of Baltimore was unconditionally released is unfounded. He was only released by the government on giving parole of honor that he would do no act openly or covertly hostile to the government of the U. S.

A general army order has been issued, stating that there will be added to the general staff of the army, four quarter-masters and eight assistants to be promoted and selected according to existing laws. There will be added to the medical department, ten surgeons and twenty assistants. Surgeons will be promoted from senior surgeons, and assistants appointed from civil life, after having passed the usual examination by the board from the medical department of the army. Due public notice of the appointment, time and place of meeting of the board will be given.

Mr. Hobart, superintendent of Mt. Vernon, says there is no foundation for the rumor that the remains of Washington have been removed from their resting place.

Brigadier General Mansfield issued an order to-day, as follows:

I ordered by the telegraph agent of Adams express company, at New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, that in future no express matter, inclusive of letters, will be permitted to go south of this city into Virginia.

Last evening Col. Stone, by order, seized the express matter, and stopped all contraband goods, and allowed the rest to go forward.

Ex Gov. Reeder of Pennsylvania, has been appointed a Brigadier General by the President.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, May 17.

Military movements are of more significance and look like work. Maj. Gen. McClelland will probably arrive to-morrow and assume command next week. Then will commence a gradual concentration of troops to the number of ten thousand. Comprehensive measures will also be taken to strengthen this point by erecting a formidable battery at the confluence of the rivers, and by the removal of the Illinois Central side tracks along the Ohio levee. Memorandum agreement has been made with Arter & Horrill to remove their distillery within ten days, and make room for the proposed fortifications. The distillery stopped work to-day.

Reports of southern movements to attack Cairo are not believed, though repeated by each new comer. Gen. Prentiss has private means of knowing what is going on and full confidence is placed in him. Either an attack will be made on Cairo, or an expedition will be sent south from here before hot weather sets in. The troops now in camp are ready for anything; they are in excellent discipline and good health—not twenty being sick.

Supplies of powder, provisions, and uniforms arrived to-day. All will be uniformed next week.

Gen. Prentiss first assumed the title of Brigadier General to-day. The balance of his staff is not yet decided on.

Barker's dragoons changed their location to the Ohio levee, two miles from town.

Only local boats passing to-day.

Gen. Prentiss replied to a message from Gov. Magoffin to-day, denying the right of the Governor to interrogate him about the late arrest of a spy from Columbus, Ky.

ANNAPOLIS, May 17.

One hundred men, with two cannon, left on a steamer for the purpose of retaking the light ship laying in Great Wycomico river.

It is said many Unionists among the troops at Harper's Ferry had been induced to enlist by false reports of another John Brown raid.

The reason for scattering troops through Virginia was to insure a secession majority by their votes.

The New York Herald's special Cincinnati correspondent says Gen. McClelland has sent 5,000 guns for the use of Kentucky Unionists.

No truth in the rumor about Breckinridge.

COLUMBUS, May 16.

Major Anderson had an enthusiastic reception at the depot. He made a brief speech, and in reply to a question, stated that he never said Breckinridge would meet him at Cincinnati to command Kentucky volunteers.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, May 17.

At a meeting of the citizens of Atchison, without respect to party, held this evening, and presided over by Mayor Fairchilds, a series of resolutions were adopted pledging ample and complete protection to persons and property, and to government and other freight which may be shipped here. No danger is apprehended from any source, but several companies have been thoroughly organized and fully equipped.

NEW ORLEANS, May 17.

Texan advices say that Col. Van Doren has succeeded in causing the surrender of the remaining federal troops in Texas.

Unfounded rumors exist that Montgomery, the abolitionist, is marching to capture the forts on the upper border.

WASHINGTON, May 17.

Major Mulligan's Irish brigade has been accepted for the war. The department daily receives bushels of letters from applicants for places, military and civil. Most of which ask for replies. It is proper to state that its imperative rule that letters relating to such subjects, though read and filed, are not and cannot be answered.

BALTIMORE, May 17.

Special to Herald from Lynchburgh, Va., May 17, says the remains of Washington have been conveyed to Lexington, Va., and there interred in suitable manner.

Direct news from Harper's Ferry, received by this arrival, says a few batteries have been erected on the hills. It was supposed by the rebel chief that they would be attacked soon after the close of the week, and that Gen. Butler would command the expedition. Yesterday scouting parties were sent out and telegraphic signals agreed on, by which approaching troops were to be made known.

A gentleman from Houston confirms the reports that any army which invades that state will be harrassed by numerous bands of guerillas.

An officer of troops just from Cairo says Gen. Pillow was certainly seen on the Kentucky side of the river on Saturday.

Times' Washington despatch says the secretary of war has accepted the 1st brigade of Chicago, 1000 strong. They go for the war. Col. Mulligan leaves for Illinois to-morrow to bring them on. They have orders for marching in this direction as soon as he arrives.

We learn from the postmaster general his intention to-morrow to suspend all steam mail service in the seceding states as these states have no business of any importance, except mail service from which government derives no benefit. All such contracts will therefore be annulled by the government.

It is reported that a letter has been received from Col. Lee to the government of this city which says the whole statement of the removal of Washington's remains is without the slightest foundation.

The statement made by some Baltimore papers that all troops recently passing thro' Baltimore have not been molested or insulted is incorrect. Ringgold's artillery were grossly insulted nearly all the way through the streets, but no offensive attack made.

It is reported that in consequence of Gov. Hicks' remonstrance, Virginia troops have been withdrawn from Maryland. If promptly occupied by U. S. troops, the heights of Virginia thus vacated, will completely command the town and encampment of Harper's Ferry.

World's despatch.—Steamship Huntsville has joined the Niagara before Charleston harbor and the two now constitute an efficient blockade there.

It was deemed necessary to-day to stop rumors, to dispatch a messenger to Arlington Heights and make a critical examination to see if any batteries have been erected or troops near at hand. He returned and reports that he saw no cannon, and with the exception of a small picket guard of 20 men opposite Georgetown, there were no soldiers to be seen within a radius of 5 miles of the heights.

It is stated that Chief Engineer Caswell from New York, who was lately under arrest at Harper's Ferry, was released on the strength of despatches from New York, which declared that if he was hung every Virginian in the north that could be found would meet a similar fate.

The Tribune's despatch says—The President has accepted three of the nine tugs offered by Mr. Sturges of Chicago, some weeks since, which will be detailed for service at Cairo.

Arrests for treason continue to be made.

A young man of Newark, New Jersey, just arrived from Charleston, South Carolina, says there is very little military activity there. All the troops have marched for Virginia. He witnessed the bombardment of Sumter; if any were killed at Moultrie or the batteries, they were buried there, and the fact is not known in Charleston. He had seen Beauregard twice since the bombardment. He remained at Richmond one day. There all is action; troops are continually arriving and departing; he says the cavalry are good men, but they have poor horses. Perfect confidence as to the result of the conflict reigns every where.

The Herald's Washington despatch says—It is useless to disguise the fact that leading members of the diplomatic corps in Washington are engaged in constant and anxious discussion on the course which it may be necessary for them to adopt. They constantly receive urgent instructions from their respective governments to inform them with the utmost precision of the chances of the two sections in their present quarrel.—It is leaking out that the governments in question declare their commercial interests identified in a great measure with the south, and that if they are forced into taking sides with either, they will be compelled to look carefully after cotton and free trade. England is disposed to move cautiously in this important matter, and is playing her usual game, urging France to take the chestnuts out of the fire. The country may not generally be aware that there is at this moment an agent of the French Emperor traveling in the south, by the name of Barroche. He is instructed to say he is simply collecting information for the commercial bureau for the minister of public works, but it is an artifice. He is a political more than a commercial agent, and his dispatches are regularly forwarded for Paris and necessarily exercise a great influence over the mind of the Emperor. It is begining to transpire that Mr. Russell, the correspondent of the London Times, is not merely writing letters to that journal, but that his private communications for higher quarters contain a good deal of interesting matter which he does not think it discreet to print.

The President summoned the cabinet to-day in great haste, and they were in session about an hour.

Secretary Seward left the White House and proceeded to the quarters of Gen. Butler, and not finding the latter in, despatched one of the general's aids in pursuit of him. The interview lasted some time.

It is evident, from appearances, that the government intends dealing with Missouri in the same manner it has with Maryland. As evidence of this the government has concluded to take charge of the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad, and employ it for government purposes.

It appears that government is steadily carrying out its programme of action as to rebel states.

It is determined to appoint collectors for different southern ports, and government is selecting men of energy to fulfill the important functions confided to them.

Duties will be collected on men-of-war, whatever may be the opinions of legal authorities here or elsewhere on the subject.

Ex-Secretary Cooper of Frederick, Md., says he will have a regiment ready to be mustered into service on Monday next.

The President has commissioned Mr. Sickles to raise a division of 10,000 men, to report in ten days. Till then he holds the rank of brigadier general, then as major general.

ST. LOUIS, May 18.

The state tobacco warehouse was visited yesterday by the United States authorities and a considerable quantity of arms and munitions of war were taken therefrom by the Col. of the Constitutional Guards, and have been sent to the police station for safe keeping. The city is now environed by a line of military posts extending from the river below the arsenal around the western outskirts to river again on the north.

The object of these posts is to prevent hostile troops and munitions of war entering the city, to protect public peace and give complete security to every peaceful citizen. The forces composing these encampments belong to the regiments under the command of Cols, Blair, Boernstien and Sigel. 27 persons died of wounds received in the Camp Jackson affair and 8 in the Walnut street collision.

Pensacola correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser says that 600 troops from Georgia and Alabama arrived there on 13th inst., being an advance guard of 2000 recently ordered to that point. They will increase Gen. Bragg's command to about 10,000 men.

CHICAGO, May 18.

Senator Douglas has been very ill of typhoid fever ever since he returned to this city. Fears are entertained by his friends that he will not recover.

BOSTON, May 18.

A bill was introduced into the house today, proposing to prohibit any person, directly or indirectly, from buying or holding any collateral securities of seceded states, under penalty of imprisonment in state prison. Bill referred to special committee on the governor's address.

WASHINGTON, May 18.

The long bridge connecting with the Virginia shore was guarded last night by a larger number of effective troops than heretofore, and armed vessels were in the vicinity. These measures were precautionary, in view of the report of a design to injure the bridge, by secessionists.

CINCINNATI, May 18.

Kentucky currency is refused by nearly all our bankers to-day.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, May 18.

Flour dull and heavy for common grades, sales 6,000 barrels, 4,95a5,10 super state; 5,15a5,25 extra state; 4,95a5,10 super western; 5,15a5,50 common to medium extra western. Wheat market rules very firm for good sound, parcels with fair export demand; unsound dull and heavy, sales 80,000 bushels. 1,21a1,23 Milwaukee club; 1,19 choice Chicago spring.

Serious Illness of Senator Douglas.

The Chicago Tribune of this morning says:

We are deeply pained to hear that Senator Douglas is thought by his physicians to be past recovery. Since his last great speech in National Hall, in this city, he has been suffering from a complication of maladies, the most marked and painful of which was a rheumatism of an inflammatory character. Within a few days past his disease has assumed the form of a typhoid fever, under which he is said to be rapidly sinking. Last night his symptoms were particularly alarming, and though his physicians were unremitting in their attentions and willing to form a favorable prognosis from the slightest hopeful indication, they were greatly troubled by the evident prospect of a speedily fatal result. Mr. Douglas has had a constitution of wonderful recuperative force; his vital powers have great activity; and his will, by no means unimportant on a sick bed, has the strength of iron. These, we devoutly trust, may yet bring him through, and prolong his life for the benefit of the country, whose demands in this great emergency he has answered with that fervent patriotism which has blotted out the past.

GEN. SCOTT.—Mr. Weed writes to the Albany Evening Journal last Saturday:

I am not at liberty to say much of what is doing or to be done, by the administration or by Gen. Scott. Let the people, however, rest assured, that the UNION will be preserved and that the government will vindicate the supremacy of the laws.

Gen. Scott, though feeble in body, is vigorous in mind. In very truth, "the flesh is weak, but the spirit is strong." What a treasure to his country! How precious his life! I listened to his clear, comprehensive, enlightened, practical views with wonder and admiration. He is intending to invest the other veteran general with an important command.

I have reason to believe that Governor Banks will be invited to take a military position. Gen. Webb, of the Courier and Enquirer, will be tendered the command of a brigade.

MAJOR GENERAL MCCLELLAND.—Our dispatches yesterday confirmed the information given by us, several days ago, that Illinois, Indiana and Ohio are to form a military division, and to be under the charge of Major General McClelland of Ohio. This appointment is regarded as the best that could possibly have been made. Gen. McClelland is a Pennsylvanian by birth, and was formerly one of the most eminent and skillful officers in the United States army. Gen. McClelland entered the United States military academy as a cadet from Pennsylvania in 1842, and graduated at that institution with distinction in 1846. He was immediately appointed brevet second lieutenant in the corps of engineers, and during the Mexican campaign was actively engaged with his corps. He was brevetted first lieutenant for gallant and meritorious conduct in the battles of Contreras and Cherubusco—the latter the hottest contested battle in that war—August 20, 1847. He was subsequently appointed brevet captain for gallant conduct in the battle of Molina del Rey, September 8th, 1847, but declined the honor. He subsequently participated in the successful assault on the castle of Chepaltepec, September 13, 1847, for which he received an honorable brevet. He commanded a company of sappers and miners in 1848. He was afterwards appointed one of the three commissioners to visit Europe during the struggle between the allied powers and Russia. Enjoying ample facilities for inspecting all the operations in both the hostile camps, he was enabled to render himself personally familiar with all details, and every possible aspect of modern warfare on a gigantic scale. His report to the government of the results of his observations forms one of the most reliable and interesting works. For several years past he has been actively engaged in superintending extensive railroad operations in the western states, to which pursuit he energetically devoted himself after his resignation. He is the translator and compiler of the "Manual of Bayonet Exercise for the United States Army."

Somebody sends us an anonymous letter from Tennessee threatening to assassinate us for what we have said of John Bell.—We hope he won't. We want the use of the whole remnant of our three score and ten to repent properly of our vote for Bell last August.—Louisville Journal.

A PILGRIM TO NIAGARA FALLS.—At the request of Bishop Lynch of Toronto, the Pope has published a decree declaring that those who make a pilgrimage to the church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Peace, near the falls of Niagara, and pray for the concord of Christian Princes, the peace and triumph of our Holy Mother the Church, the extirpation of heresies, and the conversion of sinners," may have au indulgence of seven years and seven times forty days from canonical or otherwise enjoining penance.

CLEVELAND WOOL DEPOT CO.—This company is composed of leading and substantial wool growers of Ohio, who will do with their customers exactly as they agree to in their advertisement, which we publish in another column. Let wool-raisers take notice, and then see if it will not be to their interest to deal with this company.—Ohio Farmer.

Dentistry.

M. B. Johnson still continues the practice of Dentistry at his new location, West Milwaukee street, over Moseley & Bro's Bookstore, Janesville, Wis. He is now manufacturing artificial Dentures on Vulcanized Rubber Base. This substance has been thoroughly tested, and found to be superior to many others. It is very strong and light, and is worn with greater ease and comfort than most anything else, and can be afforded at a price which places it within the reach of all. Call and see it. He also continues to use the Continuous Gum Work, which is superior to all others; gether with all other styles of work now in use.

SPECIE PAYMENTS.—We understand by the telegraph operator here, that a bill has been introduced into the legislature to-day, extending the suspension of specie payments from December to March next.

The war bill was under discussion.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.—At the adjourned meeting of the council last evening, the following persons were licensed to sell spiritous liquors for one year from the 16th of May 1861:

Grant & Long, George Tarrant, Patrick Mullen, George Gamble, Michael Geis, W. G. Wheelock, T. B. Woolliscroft, F. H. Richards, John Morsh, George Bodle, Geo. Harvey, Wm. Eccleston, Samuel Hocking, D. W. Inman, Brown & Ryan, Lewis Wilbur, John B. Ehle, D. A. Aiken, Wm. Kinary, O. F. Myers, M. Dunn & Co., Patrick Connors, H. Hammond, Wm. Murdock and —— Shaskshesky.

The treasurer's bond was presented as corrected and approved.

A settlement of the Beri Cook judgment against the city was made by delivering to him tax certificates owned by the city.

The same kind of a settlement of the account of Sleeper & Norton for legal services in the suit of Clark & Co. against the city was authorised.

☞ In selecting from the decisions of the supreme court those arising in this city, we overlooked that of Wyman vs. the State. The opinion was delivered by Justice Cole, and the judgment of the circuit court was affirmed with costs. This decision establishes the legality of the road in dispute.

J. F. HORTON.—This gentleman, who is reported to have been sentenced to be hung in Memphis by the rebels, will be remembered by many of our citizens. He rode the trained horse "Black Dick" at the equestrian trial in the horse show in this city last fall, and exhibited a matched span of horses. It is stated that he got into a row with a party in that city and by some inadvertant expressions let fall, called down the ire of the ruffians.

CAPT. LYNCH IN MONROE.—The Monroe Sentinel says—"Our Irish fellow citizens are flocking to the defence of the star spangled banner. It will be seen by a short communication which we publish elsewhere, that Mr. Lynch, of Janesville, has been commissioned by the governor of this state to raise a company of volunteers, and that he has room for a few more Irisnmen if they apply at once."

THE SHEBOYGAN VOLUNTEERS.—A report that the Sheboygan volunteers had disbanded proves to be false. They are enrolled in the 4th regiment.

The Marquette Eagle says more acres of wheat have been sown in that county the present season than last year.

ASPARAGUS.—The lovers of this fine vegetable will find a large quantity at a very low price at Lynch's meat market above the Hyatt House.

N. P. Willis, alluding to the promiscuous display of bunting in the city of New York, says, "it seems as if Nature's entire stock of rainbows had been hung out to dry."

TAKE CARE OF YOUR DOGS.—No change was made in the dog law by the legislature last winter, and it will be well for anybody who owns a dog worth keeping to have him registered. The city clerk is the proper officer to do the business necessary to save the dogs.

SUPREME COURT REPORTER.—Mr. Spooner, the new reporter for the supreme court, was formerly a lawyer in extensive practice in the state of Indiana. He has been a resident of Madison for the past two years, but, being in delicate health, has not engaged in practice.

Rev. C. Chauncy Burr, one of the editors of the New York Day Book, made himself opnoxious by defending the south, on a Brooklyn ferryboat, Sunday, and when he landed a few New York Zouaves took h m in hand, and in a short time induced him to furnish champagne for the crowd and to drink with them "Long life to the Union and death to all traitors."

Love and War.

The war correspondent of the Cincinnati Press, writing from Camp Dennison, the rendezvous of the Ohio state troops, retails the following bit of the romance of war:

I come now to a bit of gossip which has served for a time, to relieve the monotony of camp life. We have had a woman among us; a voluntary martyr in small clothes. A woman, who entered the service with a vow never to lay down her arms, until they embraced the corporality of a truant lover.—He is a lucky man, whose light moustache and winning ways tempted this gentle maiden from her peaceful home—a lucky Lieutenant, whose first name begins with a P, and a quiet member of the topographical engineers, sappers and miners. Ah, lucky P., sly votary of martial Mars. How could you storm so defenseless a citadel? How could you pluck so tender a flower, only to bear away the leaves that shadowed its youthful purity? A woman in the camp; a girlish soldier, with sparkling eyes and raven hair! Need I tell you of the excitement which followed this announcement? In the pocket of a curious garment, which conceals the beating of Lieut. P.'s heart, was found a carefully prepared document, incased in a neat envelope. In the course of a hurried perusal, the following lines occurred, which if my memory serves me, were written by Sir Walter Scott:

> The heath this night must be my bed,
> The bracken curtain for my head
> My lullaby the warder's tread,
> Far, far from love and thee, Susan.
> To-morrow eve more stilly laid,
> My vesper-song, thy wail, sweet maid,
> It will not waken me, Susan.
> A time will come, with feeling fraught,
> For if I fall in battle fought,
> Thy hapless lover's dying thought
> Shall be a thought on thee, Susan;
> And if returned from conquered foes,
> How blithely will the evening close,
> How sweet the linnet sing repose,
> To my young bride, and me, Susan.

But to the facts. On Saturday morning last, at about eleven o'clock, while Col. Morrow, of the Third Regiment, was passing near the quarters of Company G, of the Montgomery Guards, a spruce little soldier came tripping towards him, with a genteel "good morrow" and a polite tip of a military cap.

"Can I have a word with you, Colonel," said the soldier, with an arch look and a cunning shake of the prettiest of heads, "can I have a word with you, sir?" "Certainly," replied Col. M. "Who are you, and what is your business?" "I have been Bob Williams, of Company G," he said, "Company G, of the Montgomery Guards, but I am not comfortably bunked, and my associates are not as pleasant as they might be. I want to be transferred to the Hamilton Guards." "To the Hamilton what?" said the Colonel. "To the Hamilton Guards, sir," was the reply, this time with a deep blush, and a trembling of certain parts of the body. Quite a pause ensued, when the Colonel assuming his fiercest look, turned to the soldier with this sentence: "It is my conviction, sir," said he, "that you are a female—you are too broad here, too long there, too full here, and entirely too short all over: you are a woman, and must be sent home." At this juncture, the soldier burst into tears, and begged the Colonel's leniency. He promised that he should be protected, but that military usage demanded an examination, to which he must submit.

Upon examination, the following facts were elicited: In the first place, the soldier was a woman. She wore a loose army shirt, neatly fitting, rough pantaloons, and government shoes. Her hair—a deep black, was cropped closely, displaying a well shaped head. Her feet and hands were very small, and in walking the woman was plainly visible. Her voice under any other circumstances, would have betrayed her, and her good looks and prepossessing manners, had made her very popular among her comrades. Her name was Susan Jones, and at one time, she officiated as waitress in the Buckeye House at Columbus, Ohio.

She had loved a gay Lothario, and was the affianced of a dashing young Lieutenant, whose name I withhold. In an enthusiastic moment, he took himself to the wars, while our modest maiden, wiping her dishes and her eyes, resolved to fly to arms, rather than submit to so dastardly a scheme of secession. She provided herself with the uniform necessary to a volunteer of the genus homo, scratched her name boldly on the list, and stepped off to the music of the fife and drum.

The Colonel gave her an honorable discharge, a free pass upon the railroad, and sent a sergeant with her to Columbus, as a sort of body guard. The affair created much excitement, and crowds of sympathizing soldiers accompanied Susan to the depot. She had no hoops, nor anything in the shape of female apparel in the camp, and she left us as she came, panting for war! Her last words were, that she would be back again—for her P—— should not leave her.

The bravery evinced by this young and pretty girl, is a part of that virtue which renders female character lovely, and Miss Jones leaves us with her fair name still untainted.

REFUGEES FROM THE SOUTH.—Boats coming up the Mississippi river are loaded with passengers fleeing to the north for safety. Every boat contains some who have just escaped ill-treatment and torture, which barely left the breath of life in them. I saw one man who landed here to-day, from Texas, who said he had seen four of his acquaintances hung to trees within a few weeks past, for being Union men. Another called on Gen. Prentiss and told him how he had been whipped in Alabama by his neighbors, and he he had just escaped being hung by two of his old neighbors refusing to vote for it. He showed wounds on his head and body which fiends and cutthroats alone would inflict. He was an Englishman, and never before had been in a northern state; but he casually dropped the remark that he thought they could not take Fort Pickens, and he had given employment to Yankees. That was his only offence. Gen. Prentiss' reply to him is too good to be lost. "Sir," said Gen. P., "you are an old man, but you have got many years yet to live. Make a record of those fiends who inflicted these wounds upon you, and then swear that the remainder of your days shall be devoted to the extermination of those fiends from the face of the earth"—and tears coursed down the old man's cheeks as he replied, "General, I am old and feeble, but I want to go in the front ranks of the first army that goes down the river."—Cor. Chicago Journal.

A MILWAUKEE MAN HUNG.—We are informed that a couple of Germans who escaped from New Orleans lately, and arrived in this city on Monday last, report that at the time of their leaving New Orleans they were informed that two men from the north were taken out of the city to be hung for expressing Union sentiments; that one of the two was Mr. H. Bennett, formerly in the employ of H. Niedecken & Co., of this city, and the other a Swiss physician.

Mr. Bennett belonged to the Turner society here, and will be recollected by a large number of our citizens as a very pleasant, social and respectable gentleman. Our informant, who is a friend of Mr. Bennett, desires to find out the names of the two men from New Orleans, to obtain more particulars.—Free Democrat.

An English paper reports the death of Chas. Lever, author of "Charles O'Malley," "Harry Lorrequer," &c., He was nearly fifty-five years of age.

ANOTHER TRAITOR.—We find the following statement in the Albany Evening Journal of Thursday:

Major Mordecai, who has had charge of the Watervliet arsenal, has resigned his commission. His position has enabled him to become acquainted with all the government improvements in the manufacture of arms, bullets, percussion caps, cartridges, etc., and it is alleged that he had recently made patterns of these improvements.

He is a southerner by birth, and he has been looked upon with suspicion since the first outbreak of the rebellion.

When ordered to visit a southern fort, a few weeks since, he took occasion to request the authorities at Washington to transfer him to some other post, as it was not agreeable to him to be engaged in superintending the manufacture of ordnance to be used, perhaps, against his own relatives in North Carolina. But his request was not complied with, and his resignation is the result—his purpose being, he says, not to join the southern confederacy, but to retire to private life in Philadelphia.

It is very evident that the major is in sympathy with the traitors, and, next to hanging himself, his resignation is the best thing he could have done. Traitor at heart have no business in the service.

Major Thornton, now of Governor's Island, is to succeed Major Mordecai at the arsenal.

The programme of the military campaign is beginning to be developed. For the present, it is evident that there will be no offensive or forward movement. If the government were disposed, it would hardly be able to advance troops any distance into the rebel country. The men need more practice in the school of the soldier, more discipline, more steadiness than they have now, before it will do to take the field in earnest.

But I think the policy of the government is not to be a hand to hand contest, or a mere exhibition of brute power. I am confirmed in the opinion that the administration will first try the slow but sure process of exhausting the rebels by the delays and privations which always destroy a weak enemy. The superior wealth, power and resources of the north must certainly win in this contest; and it will demand much more humane and effectual means to literally force the rebel government to commit suicide—to die of the disease they have already contracted.

But even this humane policy requires a large body of troops to carry it out—probably even more than have already been called out. Large forces and efficient equipments are essential to the peaceful campaign I have intimated. To enforce the laws in the rebellious states, will require a numerical force as a posse comitatus, and to that complexion will it come at last.—Cor. N. Y. Times, May 14.

We had an interview yesterday with a very distinguished citizen of New York, who came through Georgia and Florida from Florida, where he had been sojourning some months for the benefit of his family's health. He does not believe that the U. S. government has any adequate idea of the extent of the gathering of troops in the south.

This gentleman, between Chattanooga and Nashville, came to a place, on or near a stream, where a body of troops was assembled. A gentleman told him that their number was a thousand, and that it would be four or five thousand before night. "I suppose they are going to Pickens," said our friend. "Oh no," said the other, "these are for Cairo!"—Louisville Journal.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATION.—The state of Kentucky is gradually losing in respect, and gaining in importance. Her position is so important geographically, as to make her a point of extreme importance both to the north and the south, while her vacillating or neutral course must, in the end, lose her the affections and confidence of both sections. The last advices state that she has legalized the suspension of specie payments by her banks, and that the lower house of her legislature has resolved that it approves the course of Gov. Magoffin in refusing to respond to the call of the President for volunteers. They earnestly endorse the present neutral attitude of the state. We are satisfied that Kentucky cannot hold this neutral position for six months. There is a large body of unconditional Union men in Kentucky, and a large body of secessionists. Between these parties there is a party who desire to preserve the Union, but upon condition, etc. The one or the other of the extremes must triumph, and we should not be surprised that the supremacy in that state would yet be decided by the sword. Kentucky bids fair to be again the "dark and bloody ground."—Chicago Times.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

CIRCUIT COURT—ROCK COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of Michael O'Rourke, late of Rock county, deceased.

AN order having been made by the county judge of Rock county, on the tenth day of April, 1861, allowing and admitting to probate an instrument in writing, as the last will and testament of Michael O'Rourke, deceased, the undersigned heirs-at-law of said deceased, considering themselves aggrieved by said order, do hereby appeal from the same and every part thereof, to the circuit court for Rock county, and state as reasons for their said appeal: 1st, That the evidence adduced before said judge did not warrant said judge in admitting said will to probate. 2d, That it appeared by said evidence that the supposed testator, Michael O'Rourke, was not at the time of the execution of said instrument of sound and disposing mind and memory. 3d, That the execution of said instrument was obtained by fraud. 4th, That it is not the last will and testament of said deceased.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.
